

‘State-Building:
Governance and Development under International Administrations’

Convenors: Minna Jarvenpaa, Felix Martin, Dominik Zaum

Hilary Term 2005, Mondays, 5pm,
Lecture Room G, Department of Politics and International Relations, Manor Road, Oxford

- Week 1 (17 January): Gerald Knaus (ESI): An overview of issues: political and economic development under international protectorates.
Discussants: Laurence Whitehead (Nuffield), Anke Hoeffler (Dep. of Economics)
- Week 2 (24 January): Marcus Cox (ESI): Ownership and participation –International Administration and the OHR in Bosnia
Discussant: Paul Fox (FCO)
- Week 3 (31 January): Minna Jarvenpaa (St. Antony’s): Information requirements for state-building: International Administration and UNMIK in Kosovo
Discussant: Robert Piper (UNDP)
- Week 4 (7 February): Sarah Cliffe (World Bank): International Administration and UNTAET in East Timor.
Discussant: Richard Caplan (Linacre)
- Week 5 (14 February): Ashraf Ghani (Government of Afghanistan): International Administration and UNAMA in Afghanistan.
Discussant: Clare Lockhart (ODI)
- Week 6 (21 February): Simon Gray (British Treasury): Iraq (CPA) and its relation to earlier international administrations
Discussant: Andy Bearpark (formerly Deputy Head of the CPA)
- Week 7 (28 February): The Right Hon. Chris Patten (Chancellor of the University of Oxford, former EU Commissioner for External Relations and last Governor of Hong Kong): International administrations and institution building in historical perspective
Discussant: John Darwin, Nuffield
- Week 8 (7 March): Chrik Poortman (World Bank), Lindy Cameron (DFID): A view from development practitioners.